

CURRICULUM VITAE
of
ANDREW J. EKONOMOU

PERSONAL

Married to Georgia Lambros Ekonomou, Orchestra Teacher, The Paideia School

Residence address: 834 Oakdale Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30307

Office address: Ekonomou Atkinson & Lambros, LLC, 450 The Hurt Building, 50 Hurt Plaza, S.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30303

EDUCATION

B.A., Emory University, 1970; Magna Cum Laude in Philosophy; Phi Beta Kappa (Junior Year); Senior Honor's Thesis: "History as Art and as Science;" John Gordon Stipe Scholar; Outstanding Graduating Senior Award

M.A., Emory University, 1971; Medieval History; Thesis: "The Anglo-French Arbitration Decree of Pope Boniface VIII, 1293-1303"

J.D., Emory University School of Law, 1974

Ph.D., Emory University, 2000; Major Field: Medieval History; Minor (Teaching) Field: Church History from Late Antiquity through the High Middle Ages;

Dissertation: "Byzantium on the Palatine: Eastern Influences on Rome and the Papacy, 590-752 A.D."

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Legal Counsel to Majority Leader, Georgia House of Representatives, 1975 Session of the Georgia General Assembly

Assistant Attorney General, State of Georgia, 1975-1978

Assistant United States Attorney, Chief of the Criminal Division, Northern District of Georgia, 1978-1983

Acting United States Attorney, Northern District of Georgia, 1982

Special Assistant Attorney General, State of Georgia, 1983 to present

Special Deputy Insurance Commissioner, State of Georgia, 1983-1989

Assistant Commissioner of Securities, State of Georgia, 1995-1997
Special Investigative Agent for the Georgia Commissioner of Securities Private Practice of Law, Ekonomou Atkinson & Lambros, LLC, 1983 to present

TEACHING POSITIONS

Adjunct Professor, DeKalb College
Adjunct Professor of Law, Atlanta Law School
Lecturer in Modern Greek, Georgia State University
Lecturer in Byzantine History and Literature, Emory University
Language Proficiencies: Modern and New Testament Greek; Latin; French; Italian; German

PUBLICATIONS

Byzantine Rome and the Greek Popes, (Lanham, MD: Rowman and Littlefield, 2007)

UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPTS

“Caesarius of Arles: The Exercise of Episcopal Authority Through Asceticism By a Monk-Bishop in Sixth-Century Gaul”

“Women’s Monasticism in the Sixth-Century West: Caesarius of Arles and the Rule for Nuns”

“Pope Boniface VIII: Clericis laicos and the Conflict with Philip the Fair: A Historiographic Essay”

“Monastics and Ecclesiastics in Late Antique Egypt”

“The Role and Responsibility of Diocletian in the Great Persecution: A Bibliographic Essay”

“The Relations Between the Monastery of Vezelay and the Bishops of Autun from c. 858/859 to c. 1154”

“Some Elements of Platonism in Gregory of Nyssa’s Life of Moses”

“The Idea of Stabilitas in the Rule of St. Benedict”

“The Pseudo-Macarian Homilies: To Toil in the Earth of the Heart”

“The Book of Sainte Foy as a Source Text for Historical Studies”

“St. John Chrysostom: Preacher and Politician: A Bibliographic Essay”

“St. Anselm and his English Contemporaries”